

LAND OF SONG COMES TO TOWN

Rhyl Town Council will be flying the flag for St David's Day.

Visitors to Rhyl will receive a greeting with a difference at the town's bus and train stations on March 1.

A choir will perform for passengers who will also be given a Welsh flag.

Rhyl Mayor Cllr Sarah Roberts said: "The one thing people arriving in Rhyl are always guaranteed is a warm welcome.

"Wales is known as the land of song so what better way to say hello to visitors than with a good tune and a flag to fly. We hope this Rhyl Town Council event will raise a smile for St David's Day travellers."

The town council will be joined by the Ghostbuskers Community Choir. The choir includes members from Rhyl and proved a hit when they played in the town at Christmas.

Passengers will be met outside the train station between 9am-11am on St David's Day.
