The award winning Rhyl Air Show is back and Denbighshire Leisure have announced the official line up for the weekend, including the Red Arrows and Typhoon confirmed for both days.

The Silver Stars (RLC) The Royal Logistic Corps Silver Stars Army Parachute Display Team will start the jam-packed day, followed by the eagerly awaited Royal Air Force Typhoon Team. Team Raven, the formation Aerobatic Display team, will delight the crowds on Saturday, followed by the Royal Air Force Battle of Britain Memorial Flight, Calidus Autogyro, Steve Carver Aerobatic Display with the spectacular finale from the The Royal Air Force Aerobatic Team, the Red Arrows.

Royal Air Force Battle of Britain Memorial Flight will start the line up on Sunday, followed by the Steve Carver Aerobatic Display and the The Red Devils Parachute Display Team. The Royal Air Force Typhoon Team will roar into action, followed by the Calidus Autogyro, L-39 Aviation and the day will be closed by The Red Arrows.

On Saturday from 5pm, 1891 restaurant and Terrace are holding an after-party at the Rhyl Pavilion theatre, with live music to dance the night away with, delicious food, cocktails and unrivalled views of the North Wales Coast.

Jamie Groves, Managing Director of Denbighshire Leisure Ltd, said: "Denbighshire Leisure Ltd, in partnership with Denbighshire County Council and Rhyl Town Council, is thrilled to be bringing back the now 'UK renowned' Rhyl Air Show. The Rhyl Air show is considered one of the most spectacular events across the North Wales coast. Rhyl Town Centre and Events Arena are always buzzing with excitement, and to have both the Red Arrows and Typhoon over both days, is just amazing! We can't wait to welcome visitors and locals to Rhyl and the Denbighshire coast to enjoy this award winning show."

Aviation fans can also book exclusive seats on the 1891 Terrace to watch the show on both Saturday and Sunday, with the silver and gold packages available. Spaces are limited so people are advised to book in advance to avoid disappointment.
