

Love will be in the air this Valentine's Day as a town gears up for a special competition.

Rhyl Town Council is the brainchild behind I Love Rhyl - a contest for local businesses to mark cupid's day.

Using the Love Rhyl motto, shops are being encouraged to dress their windows to be in with a chance of winning cash prizes.

Rhyl Town Councillor Joan Butterfield said: "We are keen to engage with all the businesses in Rhyl and this is the first step in that direction. We know there's some really creative companies and shops in Rhyl and we're sure they can pull out all the stops for Valentine's Day. We're looking for dressed windows that will set hearts racing. All we ask is that the words Love Rhyl are included in the designs."

A team of judges will tour the town on Saturday February 13 to pick their favourite windows. To enter register by email at enquiries@rhyltowncouncil.gov.uk marking your email I Love Rhyl.
